

ROBINSON WATERS
& O'DORISIO, P.C.

The Letters Of The Law In Colorado

For Immediate Release

ROBERT BLISS ELEVATED TO SHAREHOLDER OF ROBINSON, WATERS & O'DORISIO

Denver, CO (January 1, 2021) – Attorney Robert B. Bliss has been named a shareholder of the law firm of Robinson Waters & O'Dorisio, P.C. (RWO).

Bliss will continue to focus his practice in the area of franchise law, including compliance with state and international registration and disclosure requirements. He also handles general corporate work for a number of businesses in many industries, including general corporate formation and transaction issues, intellectual property matters, secured transactions, real estate deals, commercial real estate, securities and employment topics.

Bliss earned his B.A. from the University of Arizona, cum laude, and his J.D. from Baylor University School of Law, where he served as Associate Editor and Executive Editor of the Baylor Law Review. He is admitted to practice in Colorado and New Mexico.

Background

Established in 1977, Robinson Waters & O'Dorisio, P.C. is a full-service law firm delivering exceptional representation to businesses and individuals. The firm's lawyers serve clients throughout the Rocky Mountain region. Its comprehensive legal practice is heavily based in litigation, commercial transactions, real estate, franchise and family law. Robinson Waters & O'Dorisio, P.C. is a U.S. News Best Lawyers® 2020 Best Law Firm and is listed in the current edition of Chambers USA. The firm is also a member of TAGLaw, an elite global alliance identified by Chambers USA. Visit www.rwolaw.com for more information.

###